

THE LEXINGTON INTELLIGENCER, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1877.

Weekly Intelligencer.

SHIRTS.

Prepare boats for tobacco plants. Criminal court will begin Monday, February 20.

Found—A sheet of perforated white card board. Inquire at this office.

The beautiful snows" came down in small quantities Tuesday morning.

Please bring in bad tobacco seed that we may distribute it to those who need it.

Carpets, carpets, new and beautiful patterns, exceedingly cheap, at Conkling & Beeding's.

Mr. Green Bentzen, who was in town last Saturday, sold ten of his bronze turkeys at $2 each.

Mr. Luther Wayman is readying to Subsister town, our car load of native hawks and thirty hogs.

Mr. Wayman had sold his stock of boats and sheep last Monday to his new stand—Main street last street.

Mr. Richard Wayman is bound two carloads of cattle and about fifty head of hogs in Subsister township.

Members of the county grange should remember the date of the called meeting—Tuesday, February 27th.

Conkling & Beeding, recently, a watch and mechanism, Inquire of James H. Lowry, Franklin street.

There is to be a dance Friday night at the residence of Mr. James Lawhorn, four miles south of Lexington.

Gather your corn before the first of March. Don't wait until you are planning one crop after another.

Mrs. Sami Bradley, a few days ago, sold her house and lot in circulation to Sainte Benton, a respectable old colored woman.

Mr. Lewis Ohl is building a frame house and outbuildings on the land which he recently purchased from Dr. M. M. Robinson, near Grotton.

A very nice house, belonging to Mr. Alfred Bentzen, who lives near Grotton, located her shoulder a few days ago while running in the pasture.

As we did last spring, so now we again urge the property owners of Lexington to plant shade trees. No small expenditure of time and money will pay so well.

Mrs. Matt. and Mrs. Wayman, on the "How to get rich" road, are getting the best head of good native cattle. They are also feeding one hundred head of hogs.

A very interesting and largely attended protracted meeting is now in progress at the Mount Prairie church, in Washington township, conducted by Revs. Frank Burton and Frank West.

Now we wish to sell a fine bed-room set, together with a piano, for $100, made up top table. We will be sold for much less than they are worth, as they do not wish to remove them to St. Louis.

Ministers of the gospel in Lafayette county, whatever else they can make it, are conveniently equipped with all sorts of amanies and supplies. To those who will give us a witness, we shall be glad to send postal cards for the purpose.

Cliff Daniel tells this story of his friend Harvey Hendry. He was once testifying in a case, and was asked if certain thing had been done previous to a given time. When he answered, "For God, I can't tell when it was previous to or present."

We ask our gentleman walk up to another a few days ago and without saying a word often gives his answer punch—"Why, what the—do you mean?" said the second gent. "Oh," said the first, "I thought I'd always got you the trouble for it—your answers don't." Smile around.

At the funeral of Stewart & Ward, Karcher, came to town on Wednesday last, Thursday with bark head of sand which he had purchased there. The amount from four to eight years old, from $14 to 16 hands high and in good order. They were bought at an average of $100 per head.

In another place in this paper we print Mr. Lewin's advertisement for today. He will run this time forsoothly in the market for that article of produce, and as he is a better trader will no doubt purchase a large quantity. If you have any to sell, and can do conveniently, call on him.

Congress last year visited all counties or towns in the state and addressed a wide diversity of topics in the course of its session at Washington. Only the such documents have been thus far received. Is Lafayette county's address written and ready by Mr. Wm. H. Chiles, one of the him bleed?

Look near the yellow Grapes farm, on the Lexington road, about one mile west of Lexington, is an immeasurable condition. The road is compelled to go two or three miles out to the way to get to Lexington. Even persons on horseback have difficulty in getting through the mudhole. The road over, however, he should disregard that, and the mudhole get the neighbor.

With the date printed with your name upon the margin of the paper, it indicates the time to which you have paid. You will wish the paper continued after that date, prompt in remitting, or we shall be forced to discontinue it, unless we do not like to do. Our rule of payment to advance must be strictly enforced it enforced at all, and we demand a credit business for subscriptions.

Bates County Democrat ladies sometimes take an interest in politics. A few days since, a republican subscriber for the Demo-Democrat, without informing the remainder of his family. On last Saturday, his lovely daughter called for the mail, whereupon she was sent to the post office. She looked at us, saw the "Democrat" torn, and the head of the paper and finally returned it, remarking, "We ain't that kind of cats." She was mistaken in the notion, for which the C.D. belonged.

Mr. Jim. C. Young has been much annoyed at having "Narrow Gauge" come into his hands, and about one week ago, various places in the city and especially at the "Narrow Gauge" passengers' express, will in future, to train entirely with their cars. The general car, as far as possible, better prepared to handle grain, especially and expeditiously than any other in the county, and the people in the vicinity of Concordia should show appearance of their enterprise by patronizing them liberally.

A magnificent line of cashmere for girls' and youth's slippings at Conkling & Beeding's.

Our old friend Gen. H. C. Biddleston, found it no longer a "curious" cost, but in future, to train entirely with their cars. The general car, as far as possible, better prepared to handle grain, especially and expeditiously than any other in the county, and the people in the vicinity of Concordia should show appearance of their enterprise by patronizing them liberally.

The latest style in hats just received at the start, costing a host of heavy furs.

Mr. Wm. L. Shaw, of Himes & Co., our nurserymen, is evansing Lafayette county. He would like to see you before you leave.

On account of the sickness of Rev. Mr. Moore, the president of a benevolent organization in the pop. Central High school, Miss. A. K. Hartman & Co., of St. Louis, New and wife, Messrs. Hickam, Joseph Alford, Frank Hassell, Jesse Rathbone, Wm. New, James Hayes, Frank Carter, Hugh Wallace, Mr. E. Boyle and others. The usual collection was taken up, and the suggestion of Judge Woodruff was taken, that it was necessary to explain what was wanted to each person, and then they would sometimes return to tell their names, or take the record, and the people would be more easily understood, and the actors in the various parts acquitted themselves well. Some of the tableau he represents to have been beautiful. We regret very much our inability to get into the details of the performance.

We mentioned in our last issue that Mr. Henry Sinclair had purchased from his brother, Bernard, his entire stock of clothing, gentlemen's underwear, furnishing goods, hats and caps, trunks, values, &c.

The stock kept by this house, long and favorably known as the "Star Clothing House," was a very large and well secured one, and we hope to see some more room left at present, as the houses are becoming more crowded to make wholesale prices a little lower, and still make money. Desiring to make room for his Spring goods he is now offering winter goods at unprecedented low prices.
